PROGRAMME SUMMARY

- Building consensus, properly managing stakeholder expectations, and translating a concept or initiative into a range of viable options for achieving organisational goals are all critical competencies for today's project managers. One of the most critical aspects of project management is doing what's necessary to develop and control relationships with all individuals that the project impacts. This course will take the delegates through the techniques for identifying stakeholders, analyzing their influence on the project, and developing strategies to communicate, set boundaries, and manage competing expectations.
- Stakeholder management is critical to the success of every project in every organization. By engaging the right people in the right way in your project, you can make a big difference to its success. By successfully managing your stakeholders, you will be better able to keep a lid on scope creep, ensure project requirements are aligned, understand tolerance for risk, and mitigate issues that would otherwise delay the project. Good stakeholder management is a testimony to your influence in an organization, and a key component to a healthy project environment.
- A key factor in the success of a project is managing stakeholder needs, wants and expectations. During this practical course you'll learn how to identify key stakeholders and define their roles, establish how committed are they to the project, align and prioritise stakeholder requirements to business and organisational objectives, and gain 'buy-in'.
